EPCOR Payments Conferences are the premier conference events for payments professionals from financial institutions throughout the central United States. The conferences feature a broad spectrum of payments experts focusing on the challenges and solutions facing financial institutions. The sessions are beneficial to anyone working in Operations, Compliance, Deposit/Product Services and Cash Management covering ACH, check, card, and other electronic payments, as well as fraud and risk. We invite you to consider speaking at these events by completing and submitting the attached proposal.

Program Tracks:

- Traditional Payments • Emerging Payments & Technology • Fraud/Security/Risk • Attendees Choice

EPCOR will accept proposals for any track or subject, although our planning committee has identified the following content as desirable:

- Blockchain technology • Fintech compliance • Fraud/Cybersecurity - How FIs are handling • Legal & Regulatory Outlook/ Payments Law • APIs - Explained and defined; where are we now; legal outlook • Handling disputes - Reg E, Card • Same Day ACH - Case studies; handling risk • Real-time Payments - Use Cases from actual FI users • Career advancement, embracing diversity, attracting/retaining workforce • Corporate/End User perspectives • Origination considerations - FIs looking to expand offerings and/ or the Originator perspective

PRESENTATION GUIDELINES

- Copresented sessions should feature speakers from different organizations. Ideally, a corporate customer and a financial institution employee. • Sales pitches and distribution of marketing materials during the presentation are strictly prohibited. • Presenters are presumed available to speak at both EPCOR Spring and Fall conferences, unless EPCOR is notified otherwise.

REVIEW PROCESS

A volunteer committee of EPCOR members will review proposals according to specific evaluation criteria.

The criteria include:

- Relevance to the program • Originality of the proposal • Timeliness of the topic

DEADLINE/NOTIFICATION

Please email your completed proposal and your bio/curriculum vitae to Shirley James, AAP, CMP (shirleyj@epcor.org). We will notify you of your status within 45 days of receiving your proposal.
